

NORFOLK COUNTY CRICKET CLUB

3rd July 2026

Good Morning,

We are back in action on Sunday with a trip to Exning Park (CB8 7NN) to take on Cambridgeshire CCC in the final two group games of the NCCA T20 competition.

Following our two victories over Suffolk CCC we are top of the group with 10 points and cannot be caught as second placed Lincolnshire CCC on 9 points have finished their matches. Cambridgeshire have 3 points and still have a chance of qualifying for the Super 12's in third place although Suffolk with 4 points will have other ideas. They play Hertfordshire at Mellis CC.

Coaches Tom New and Sam Arthurton have named a strong twelve with seamers Brett Stolworthy and Joe Everett returning. Alfie Cooper is unavailable due to commitments with Norwich School so his club colleague at Swardeston, Jonah Wicks retains his place.

Cambs include Tom Cullen the ex-Glamorgan wicket keeper/batsman, Travis Holland who is contracted with Nottinghamshire and Mohammed Rizvi who played against us for Kent Spitfires in the showcase game last year. Rizvi has been in Leicester 2nd XI this year following his release from Kent. They are captained by former Leicestershire player James Sykes.

The two squads are:-

Norfolk CCC: Sam Arthurton (Capt), Freddie Fairey, Ben Wilcox, Charlie Hood (wk), Jonah Wicks, Arthur Wilcox, Hamidullah Qadri, Callum Metcalf, Joe Everett, Brett Stolworthy, Andy Hanby and Nathan Muggeridge.

Cambridgeshire CCC: Ben Saunders, Henry Wilson, Travis Holland, Tom Cullen, Ralph Haywood, Will Routledge, Mohammed Rizvi, Nick Huckle, Mark Saunders, James Sykes (capt), Jack Loveday and Alex Pierson.

Our scorer Allison Bradnock was honoured again last week when she was invited to score for England Women against West Indies Women at Lords in ICC Women's T20 World Cup. It is the second time Allison has climbed into the scoreboard at Lords for an international game. Well done, Allison! We are very proud of you.

Preparations are well under way for the festival and as mentioned last week we have added the Super 12's on August 9th to the fixtures. The small tents will be in place for that day, and I pleased to confirm that I have managed to find a sponsor for the festival – London DE London DE Group | Ethical Gemstones & Jewellery

Yours in cricket, Mike Hanby - Chair
